FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS

Roll Call

Mr. Showe called the meeting to order and called the roll.

SECOND ORDER OF BUSINESS

Public Comment Period

Ms. Williams stated thank you for the updated email on the wall project, I appreciate that response. I didn't know if we could confirm with the project team if they have completely restored the pond to its original state and if we could revisit if the project is completely done because of the email response to revisit the electrical and the water fountain installation that we were waiting on the project to be done.

Mr. Grimm stated I wouldn't imagine the project is complete.

Ms. Trucco stated we haven't received notification that it is completed yet, but I can reach back out and find out what their timetable looks like right now. There has been a wall constructed but I will try to confirm their timetable.

Mr. Hoffman stated it was very foggy this morning, but it looked close to being done on the wall.

Mr. Showe stated they indicated earlier this week that they completed work on the wall and landscaping and they may have additional maintenance work, there are still some things to go.

Ms. Trucco stated it sounds like Jason has direct communication with Brightline now and the board may want him to communicate with them, ask for timetable confirmation, that would be the best route.

Mr. Hoffman stated there is usually a process to certify the pond complete with the district they will have to go through and that may lag a little bit. Once that is done, they should be able to say they are complete on this side of the wall.

Ms. Williams asked how will we know that certification has been completed?

Mr. Hoffman stated Brightline will be completing that with the water management district and that is all public record and we can communicate with them and hopefully be in the loop.

Ms. Williams stated that will be good to know so we can move forward with the electrical and the fountain. I didn't know if Cornerstone would be coming back to look at what they have done to revisit that supplementing of landscape.

Ms. Cornelius stated once we get the certification that the project is complete, we can address the additional landscaping.

Ms. Williams stated if you drive to the back of the community, you will see that they have installed all the trees that have been promised.

Ms. Cornelius stated we have seen it.

A resident stated I live in the corner of Langefield and Andreas where the cell tower access is and wanted to find out the plan to clean that up. I know they installed some sod after it was destroyed the first time and two days later it was destroyed again. Is there a plan to do anything about that in the future? When will that be cleaned up again because it looks terrible?

Ms. Steuck stated we discussed that at length at the last meeting and we came to the agreement that resodding and repairing it and doing it again and again is not a permanent solution. Chuck who works with Mattamy is not here today was supposed to get us an update on some other potential options.

Mr. Showe stated counsel drafted a letter that went to Mattamy that referenced their agreement with the district.

Ms. Trucco stated I reviewed the access easement agreement that the district entered into with Mattamy from 2018 and it does state that the district has a right to be indemnified for any damage or loss that comes from Mattamy's use or Mattamy's agents, which would be the cellphone companies use of our property. We drafted a letter requesting Mattamy to look into the installation of alternative materials and contact GMS to discuss those materials so we will need Jimmie's help and Yellowstone's assistance in determining what would be the best material to make it more aesthetically pleasing.

Ms. Cornelius asked in that agreement is there a clause that requires them to repair the damage they caused?

Ms. Trucco responded no, there is just an obligation that they are to indemnify us for any damage or loss stemming from their use of our property to access the cell tower.

Ms. Cornelius asked when did you send that letter?

Ms. Trucco responded it went out yesterday and we also contacted Chuck to make him aware of it.

Ms. Cornelius asked do you have any other suggestions?

Mr. Hoffman responded we provided a typical section for that area about eight years ago. I can easily pull that, it had suggestions for what we call a low water crossing, it is a wetland slough that goes through there and sod is going to stay muddy and when they drive through it is going to get torn up. The preferred option is usually some kind of rock, gravel, whatever and a sign so if there is water flowing through, which it should, trucks will know how deep it is before they cross it.

A resident stated if they put down rocks, all that does is invite people who shouldn't go back there to go back there. It has been a problem. I constantly see people walking and riding bikes back there. Is there something we can do to put a chain link across that apron driveway to prevent cars and people from going back there? Clearly that sign that is in the yard is not doing any good.

Mr. Grimm stated I understand there is a gate back there when you get into the actual wetland.

A resident stated that is true but if people don't lock the gate, the gate sometimes stays wide open.

Mr. Hoffman stated from an engineering perspective anything we do to make it less likely to rut up and destroy the sod is going to contribute to that invitation. The options to make it more stable are going to make it look more robust and you have to weigh those two concerns. You can do a stabilized grass section through there that looks like grass but in an area that muddy and holds that much water I'm not sure how well that would survive.

Ms. Cornelius stated I think Chuck said it was stabilized grass.

Ms. Hoffman stated there are other systems such as geogrid.

A resident stated that geogrid is already in there.

Mr. Hoffman stated it is a function of the underlying soils that are throughout all of Randal Park, the east side of Orange County, they hold a lot of water, it is not good free draining sand. You can put down geogrid, but it is running across jello, it is not like a full-blown road base.

Ms. Steuck asked can we before the next meeting have a couple options that we can discuss?

Mr. Showe stated yes and hopefully by then we will have heard back from Mattamy on what they might be willing to do.

Mr. Grimm stated it is CDD property with an easement granted to Mattamy, which in turn granted access to a cellphone tower.

Ms. Trucco stated Mattamy and Mattamy's agents, which would be a cell company, one they have authorized to use.

Mr. Grimm stated we can keep it as is but I believe it is more important to have the surface dealt with even though it could potentially provide an invitation for people to go back there.

Ms. Cornelius asked if that easement agreement is terminated would that force the cell tower company to get access from the highway?

Ms. Trucco stated I'm not sure what access they would have. The cell tower probably provides a benefit to the people who live in this community. If the board wants me to look into possible ramifications if we did terminate it, I can do that.

Ms. Cornelius stated I don't think terminate it right away but put a little fire under them to deal with this.

Mr. Hoffman stated I know the board has the ability to terminate any kind of agreement but typically access easements are not as easily terminated. It seems odd to say that the board could take away the access easement.

Ms. Cornelius stated I don't think that is the intention, the intent is that Mattamy will cooperate and make this right.

Mr. Hoffman stated I can go out and look at it after this meeting to get a sense of the elevations. I don't know if it is possible to raise that site so it would be a little more free draining that may help the grass stay stable. There may be an option that blends in.

THIRD ORDER OF BUSINESS

Approval of the Minutes of the February 18, 2022 Meeting

On MOTION by Ms. Cornelius seconded by Ms. Steuck with all in favor the minutes of the February 18, 2022 meeting were approved as presented.

FOURTH ORDER OF BUSINESS

Engineer's Report – Stormwater and Wastewater 20-Year Needs Analysis

Mr. Hoffman stated I drove around the community this morning and already shared status of completion of the north pond and that looks like it is coming along. There were no major issues identified or on my radar.

We have been working with district staff for the state's new required 20-year needs assessment, which applies to both stormwater and wastewater. We had some guidance on stormwater a few months ago and the wastewater came out just last month. We are going to wrap up a proposal to do the report required by state law that has to be filed with the state. Based on the wastewater guidance the district does not have any wastewater facilities, everything is City of Orlando owned and maintained so we will not need to complete that. We will file a letter to that affect so we will only have to do the stormwater assessment.

On MOTION by Mr. Grimm seconded by Ms. Cornelius with all in favor the proposal to prepare the 20-year needs analysis for the stormwater and wastewater system in an amount not to exceed $10,000 was approved and the chair was authorized to execute the formal proposal.

FIFTH ORDER OF BUSINESSReview and Acceptance of Fiscal Year 2021 Audit Report

Mr. Showe stated the report to management on page 30 contains the items they are statutorily required to look at and you can see there are no current year findings, no prior year findings and it is a clean audit.

On MOTION by Mr. Grimm seconded by Ms. Cornelius with all in favor the fiscal year 2021 audit report was accepted and staff authorized to transmit the final document to the State of Florida.

SIXTH ORDER OF BUSINESSConsideration of Swim Lesson Agreement with SwimKids USA

Mr. Showe stated this item is a follow-up to our discussion with the swim vendors at last meeting. We were able to come to a tentative agreement with SwimKids USA and that is in your agenda. It starts April 1, hours are Monday through Friday classes between 8 and 7 and that doesn't mean they are going to use all that time but it gives them flexibility. We limited weekends to morning classes. They will give 10% discount to all residents.

On MOTION by Ms. Cornelius seconded by Mr. Grimm with all in favor the swim lesson agreement with SwimKids USA was approved.

SEVENTH ORDER OF BUSINESSRatification of Polling Place Agreement with City of Orlando

SECTION VI

Hello! My name is Angela Lewis and I moved to Randal Park a little over a year ago. I am a 500-hour certified yoga teacher. Additionally, I have certifications as an Ayurveda Yoga Specialist, a Level II Reiki practitioner, SEED meditation, and Barre fitness. Also of note, I carry insurance as a yoga teacher.

Based on conversations that I have had with neighbors and on the Randal Park Ladies FaceBook page, there is an interest in our community for a yoga class(es) to be offered at the Clubhouse. I would like to propose offering yoga class(es) beginning on Tuesdays from 6:30 pm-7:30 pm. This class would be a gentle flow class. However, I am able to adjust and adapt classes as needed.

I would love to see this opportunity grow! Special monthly classes . . . Classes for runners . . . Prenatal classes . . . Ayurveda workshops . . . Wine and Unwind . . . There are so many possibilities!

Thank you for considering this opportunity to foster wellness and continue building a sense of community here in Randal Park!

Please note that my experience as a yoga teacher includes teaching yoga (and Barre fitness) classes at Trinity Yoga in Hurricane, WV. I also taught classes for my colleagues at Barboursville Middle School in Barboursville, WV and at the Huntington City Mission in Huntington, WV.

Respectfully,

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has also become an important employer of women, with 5.5 million women employed in the public sector in 1995, compared with 4.5 million in 1980.

There are a number of reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of women. One reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of women in its workforce. In 1995, 88% of the public sector workforce were women, compared with 78% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

Another reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are part-time or flexible. In 1995, 22% of the public sector workforce were employed on part-time or flexible contracts, compared with 12% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

A third reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are well paid. In 1995, the average salary of a public sector employee was £18,000, compared with £15,000 in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

There are a number of other reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of women. One reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are secure. In 1995, 88% of the public sector workforce were employed on permanent contracts, compared with 78% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

Another reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are well located. In 1995, 22% of the public sector workforce were employed in London, compared with 12% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

A third reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are well matched to the skills of women. In 1995, 88% of the public sector workforce were employed in jobs that required a degree or higher qualification, compared with 78% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's health and care. The strategy is based on the following principles:

- Older people should be able to live independently and actively in the community.
- Older people should be able to access the services and support they need.
- Older people should be able to participate in decisions about their care and support.
- Older people should be able to live in a safe and secure environment.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives, including the following:

- To improve the health and well-being of older people.
- To ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need.
- To ensure that older people are able to participate in decisions about their care and support.
- To ensure that older people live in a safe and secure environment.

The strategy is a key document for the development of older people's services in the UK. It provides a framework for the development of policies and services for older people, and sets out a number of key objectives that should be achieved by the year 2010.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) and is projected to increase by a further 1.5 million by 2010 (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the health care needs of older people. The Department of Health (2000) has set out a strategy for the NHS to meet the needs of older people. This includes a commitment to improve the quality of care for older people, to ensure that older people are able to live independently for as long as possible, and to ensure that older people are able to access the services they need. The strategy also includes a commitment to improve the training and education of health care professionals to meet the needs of older people.

One of the key challenges facing the NHS is how to meet the needs of older people in a cost-effective way. This is a complex issue, as older people often have multiple health problems and may need a range of services. However, there are a number of ways in which the NHS can improve its care for older people without increasing costs.

One of the most important ways in which the NHS can improve its care for older people is by ensuring that older people are able to live independently for as long as possible. This can be achieved by providing a range of services that support older people to live independently, such as home care, day care, and residential care. It is also important to ensure that older people are able to access the services they need, such as health care, social care, and housing.

Another key way in which the NHS can improve its care for older people is by improving the training and education of health care professionals to meet the needs of older people. This includes ensuring that health care professionals are able to provide high-quality care to older people, and that they are able to work in a way that is respectful of older people's dignity and autonomy.

There are a number of other ways in which the NHS can improve its care for older people, such as by improving the quality of care in residential care homes, and by ensuring that older people are able to access the services they need. However, the most important way in which the NHS can improve its care for older people is by ensuring that older people are able to live independently for as long as possible.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has also become an important employer of women, with 5.5 million women employed in the public sector in 1995, compared with 4.5 million in 1980.

There are a number of reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of women. One reason is that the public sector has a high proportion of women in its workforce. In 1995, 88% of the public sector workforce were women, compared with 78% in 1980. This is due to a number of factors, including the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are traditionally held by women, such as teaching, nursing, and social work.

Another reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are full-time and permanent. In 1995, 68% of the public sector workforce were employed on full-time contracts, compared with 58% in 1980. This is due to the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are essential to the functioning of the state, such as those in the health service and the education system.

A third reason why the public sector has become an important employer of women is that it has a high proportion of jobs that are well-paid. In 1995, the average salary of a public sector employee was £18,000, compared with £15,000 in 1980. This is due to the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the higher grades of the public sector pay scale, such as those in the senior management and professional grades.

There are a number of other factors that have contributed to the growth of the public sector as an employer of women. These include the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector, and the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector. These factors have all contributed to the growth of the public sector as an employer of women.

The public sector has also become an important employer of women because it has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector. This is due to the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector, and the fact that the public sector has a high proportion of jobs that are in the public sector.
